A Word to the Wise Guy

There are a lot of "Wise Guys" floating around in autos that may read an ad like the above in a year or so if the shortage of crude oil continues. The price of 50c per gallon is predicted for gasoline by July 1st. And when it starts to "go up" she goes fast.

There is only one way to keep the price down—more drilling in wild cat territory and produce more crude oil—which is selling in Kentucky now, at $4 per barrel. Are you "doing your bit" to help drill these wells; are you interested in seeing Southeast Missouri become an OIL CENTER?

Th "Wise Guy" says: Oh, I bought ten dollars worth once and the company failed." Had he used the same careful judgment in buying stock that he would use in selecting a pair of shoes, or a horse, he never would have been stung. Investigate carefully anything that is offered you before buying—it's wise and otherwise.

We are now offering you the chance to get into a company that is managed by Southeast Missouri business men—men you have heard of or know; a company with 22 producing wells, tanks, pipe-lines, loading station; 900 acres producing leases; thousands of acres of wild cat leases—can sell you this stock for short time only at 20c per share; blocks of $100 and upwards at SPECIAL GROUND-FLOOR OFFER.

We are drilling in Perry county now; expect to drill in several counties in Southeastern part of the state. Will you join us? Help develop your state and help raise funds to put down fifty more wells in Kentucky this summer? Are you game to INVESTIGATE? If so, write at once for new sixteen page booklet entitled "FORTUNES IN OIL."

If you are not game to take a chance and help with drilling for more crude oil, better get ready to pay $5 per gallon for gas. Its up to you wise guys to do a little boosting, and oil up your hammer and lay it away for the time being. Knocking the OIL GAME, is knocking your POCKET BOOK later. Join one of our excursions to Kentucky oil fields and come back and say: "Wall, I swan; seeing is believing—believing is buying—who'd a thunk it?"

LET THE ABOVE SOAK IN—OH, YE, OF LITTLE FAITH.

Those who have investigated our offerings are the biggest buyers—investigate now before the price goes to 30c per share. NEXT EXCURSION APRIL 19th.
